Topic

Amend the Village of North Hudson’s 2020 Annual Budget to cover the increased amount for the purchase of a 2020 Ford Police Interceptor SUV.

Background

A municipality must amend its budget any time the amounts of appropriations stated in the budget or the purpose for which the money will be used are changed. A two-thirds vote of the entire membership of the governing body is required to amend the budget, and a Class 1 notice of the amendment must be published within fifteen days of amending the budget.

The Village Board of Trustees approved the purchase of a 2020 Ford Police Interceptor SUV on March 31, 2020. $41,000 was initially included in the 2020 budget for this purchase however, the amount came in higher at $58,000.

101-41-57210-811 Capital-Vehicles	$17,000
101-28-49910-000 Use of Available Funds (additional cost of new Police Department squad)		$17,000

Suggested Motion

Move to amend the Village of North Hudson’s 2020 Annual Budget by transferring $15,000 from the Police Department Vehicle Assigned Fund, and $2,000 from the Use of Available Funds to cover the purchase of capital equipment for the Police Department.
